TO THE READER.

THis Sale consists of a Choice Collection of English Books, Ancient and Modern, in Divinity, History, Physick, Romances, Travels, &c. in all Volumes, being Principally designed for the Benefit and Accommodation of the Gentlemen, &c. of the Borough of Southwark: And as this Way of Sale by Auction, wherever it hath been Essay'd, hath Received the Approbation of the Learned, &c. I presume to Believe it may and will be Encouraged here, and that the Ingenious Bidding of the respective Buyers, will in some measure answer the Expence and Trouble of such an Undertaking.

Con-

Conditions of Sale.

I. THat he who bids most, is the Buyer; and if any Difference arise, which the Company cannot decide, then the Book, or Books, shall be forthwith exposed to Sale again.

II. That all the Books in this Catalogue, not otherwise expressed, (for ought we know) are perfect; but if any of them appear to be otherwise before they be taken away, the Buyer shall have his Choice of taking or leaving them.

III. That all Gentlemen, &c. Buyers do give in not only their Surnames, but Christian, as also their Places of Abode, with the signs they Live, or Lodge at, to the end that every Person may have Justice done him in the buying, and in the delivery; which new Condition is now proposed, to prevent the Inconveniencies that have more or less hitherto attended the Undertakers, and also the Purchasers, by reason that several Persons, out of Vanity and Ostentation, have appeared and bought, to the damage and disappointment of the Parties they outbid, and have not been so kind to their own Reputation, or just to the Proprietors, as to pay for and fetch them away.

IV. That the Money for the Book or Books so bought, is to be paid by the Buyer within one Week after the Auction is ended, at the Place where they are sold, where constant attendance shall be given for that Week, Day by Day, from Nine of the Clock in the Morning to Twelve, and from Two till Six in the Evening, for Receipt of the Money, and Delivery of the Books.

V. The Books, for satisfaction of the Buyers, will be exposed to view for three whole days before the Sale, from the Hours of Nine in the Morning to Twelve, and from Two in the Afternoon to Six.

This Auction will begin on Monday the Nineteenth of December, 1687. At Mr. Young's House, a Tobacconist, next door to the Queens-Head-Inn, over against St. Margaret-Hill in Southwark, from the Hours of Nine in the Morning to Twelve, and from Two in the Afternoon to Six.
